Rehab and Revive Intern Program and Responsibilities

This program at Rehab and Revive is a unique opportunity of a ground floor operation. As an intern here we trust you will learn a great deal as well as work hard to see if this is the career and life you would like to have. We would like to help you get to where you would like both personally and professionally.

We do require a consistent commitment on a weekly basis to be determined with Dr. Justin Lin for a total of 24 weeks/6months. Most internships and observations do not take as long, however, being a one person practice. Dr. Lin will be mentoring and sacrificing some time to help you learn and gain valuable information for your future. There is also an expectation to treat RRPT as if it were your own growing business in terms of being respectful and courteous to all employees, guests, clients, and patients.

Objectives:

1. Learn about the Business of Physical Therapy
Which includes Front Desk and Assistant duties
2. Learn about Physical Therapy as a Profession
Marketing yourself and your practice
3. Learn about the Basic Institute of Physical Art Principles and Concepts
4. Learn Basic Patient Rapport Skills
5. Learn valuable tools and skills in Physical Therapy as a healing art

Your Responsibilities

To conduct yourself in an exemplary manner representative for the Rehab and Revive Community

Do not engage in any lewd, inappropriate behaviors, discussions, or interactions while representing Rehab and Revive and Dr. Justin Lin as an intern or employee

Take notes during the sessions and if you have questions, make sure to ask them at the end of the day

Dress Attire:

Always come appropriately dressed with black pants/khakis (no skirts) and modest top/R+ shirt/polo for work-setting. Scrubs could also be worn. No Leggings or Yoga Pants

Tattoos are to be covered or hidden at all times

Any fraudulent or felonious activities (stealing of goods/money/usage/stealing of patient or office passwords and information) or misrepresentation of yourself as an entity of Rehab and Revive other than as an assistant/intern will incur your immediate removal and termination from this program and premises, as well as legal actions.

Our Responsibilities to You:

Assignments will be given and questions given and reviewed and a discussion within a reasonable time.

We will treat you with the respect/understanding that warrants an employee or guest at RRPT.
